

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

TERESA LYNN ARMSTRONG,

Plaintiff,

v.

KILOLO KIJAKAZI, Commissioner of The Social Security Administration,

Defendant.

Case No. 21-CIV-178-RAW-KEW

ORDER REMANDING CASE FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS

On September 8, 2022, the United States Magistrate Judge entered a Report and Recommendation recommending that the above-styled case be reversed and remanded for further proceedings [Docket No. 21]. The Magistrate Judge found that correct legal standards were not applied by the Administrative Law Judge by failing to properly assess Plaintiff's RFC, which caused the decision of the Commissioner that Plaintiff could perform her past relevant work as a school counselor to be unsupported by substantial evidence. On remand, the ALJ should fully consider the evidence regarding Claimant's memory issues and fully explain why specific impairments do or do not result in limitations in the RFC. The Commissioner did not file an objection to the Report and Recommendation and the time for filing objections has expired.

Upon full consideration of the record and the issues herein, this court finds that the Magistrate Judge's recommendation to reverse and remand for further proceedings is well supported. Accordingly, the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge is hereby affirmed and adopted as this court's Findings and Order.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the decision of the Administrative Law Judge is hereby REVERSED and this case is hereby REMANDED pursuant to the fourth sentence of 42

U.S.C. §405(g) for further administrative proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 26th day of September, 2022.
